RESPONSIVE READING: PSALM 100

LEADER: 1 Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands.

CONGREGATION: 2 Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

LEADER: 3 Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

CONGREGATION: 4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

ALL-TOGETHER: 5 For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

-3 John 2-

Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

Today's Promise for You

And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work . . .

-1 Peter 1:17-

There's an old saying that goes like this: "The ground is level at the foot of the Cross." What it means is that anyone and everyone needs Jesus, and anyone and everyone can come to God through Him. God doesn't care if you're rich or poor, healthy or sick, man or woman or child. He loved everyone enough to send Jesus - and promises to accept all who come through Him.

Daily Word: Gathering

I gather with others and feel close to God.

There are many ways to share the energy of connection with friends and family. Whether we communicate by phone, in writing, or on social media, I treasure our connections and the opportunity to be in touch.

Gathering in person is perhaps my favorite kind of connection. Just being in the presence of those who are special to me makes my heart glad. Sharing smiles and hugs and spending unhurried time together sharing stories is a gift unlike any other.

No matter how I gather with my friends and loved ones, I am grateful God is with us as the love and joy in our hearts. When it is time for us to part company, I pray we carry that love and joy for the days and years ahead. Time together is a gift, one for which I am so very grateful.

*For where two or three are gathered in my name,
I am there among them.
—Matthew 18:20*
